

Terms and Conditions for trialling second hand saddles

All the saddles featured on our second hand section are available for trial.

Currently trialling is only available in the UK

- * All saddles are to be paid for in full before commencement of the trial
- * Payment can be made by Card, BACS or PayPal
- * Trial period is seven days. This starts from the day you receive the saddle.
- * The saddle must be returned to us on the 7th day.
- * We are happy to organise collection for you at a cost of £25.00. This can be deducted from your refund.
- * We reserve the right to charge for excess wear and tear.
- * Saddle must be returned clean and in sound condition.
- * Saddles are all sold as seen. The seven days allows you to carefully inspect and test ride the saddle. You are encouraged to use your own saddler for all fitting advice.
- * If there are unforeseen reasons why you cannot complete your test riding and wish to keep the saddle longer you MUST let us know. We reserve the right to charge a hire charge of £25 a day if the saddle is not returned inside the time allowed.
- * Ordering a saddle implies you have read and agreed to comply with these terms and conditions without exception.
